About the Artists:

Randall Scott Harden is an award winning, American artist, with a passion for painting. His strength lies in his ability to effortlessly create a timeless style with an essence of romance. Whether having a glass of wine in Paris, or hiking in Tuscany, he is continually looking for that perfect balance of subject, atmosphere and hue.

J. Rodney Reveal is a National Award winning artist, born and raised in Noblesville, Indiana. He was granted a full painting and sculpture scholarship to the California College of Arts in Oakland, California. and completed his studies at Heron Art School His passion for the arts was inspired by Floyd Hopper, with whom he studied for many years.

Catherine Charter Bauder founded Inspire Studio Gallery in 2014. She studied oil painting and drawing with nationally known artist Leland Beaman for 4 years. She has produced hundreds of portraits on commission and won many awards for paintings and drawings. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Southside Art League (SALI) in Greenwood.
